tiny Art Show FAQs

- When & Where? The Tiny Art Show and Gallery will take place on Saturday, October 19 in the Community College of Beaver County Library during our big event, LIBRARYCON, between 12-3pm.
- Ages? This project is intended for ages 8 - Adult.
- Paint only? All mediums are acceptable (clay, paint, pen, etc.) provided that the canvas is incorporated.
- Silent Auction? You can choose to donate your canvas to the Beaver County Library System by checking and signing the option on your registration form. All proceeds from donated artwork will benefit participating libraries.
- When does bidding begin? Bidding begins on preview week, October 14-19 during regular college library hours.
- How will I know if my artwork was bid on? Winning bidders and their artists will be notified by CCBC staff after October 21. Note: The winning bidder gets to choose which library gets the money from their purchase.
- What if I want my artwork back? Artwork that is not donated will be returned to libraries. You will receive notification to pick it up at the library listed on your registration form around November 1.
- Do I need to supply a display stand? Easels will be provided during the gallery and art will be returned with one.
- Does it come with paint supplies? Art supplies are not provided but can be made available upon request at most library locations.
