

TINY ART SHOW

INFORMATION

- The Tiny Art Show will take place on Saturday, October 21 in the Community College of Beaver County Library during our big event, LIBRARYCON, between 12-3pm.
- Preview Week will be October 14-21 during regular college library hours
- This project is intended for ages 8 - Adult.
- All mediums are acceptable to use provided that the canvas is incorporated.
- Silent Auction Option: Choose to donate your canvas to the Beaver County Library System by checking and signing the option on your registration form.
- Bidding will begin on preview week.
- Canvas must have a name written on the back and turned in with registration form.
- Winning bidders and their artists will be notified by CCBC staff after October 21.
- Artwork that is not donated will be returned to libraries and ready for pickup around November 1.
- All art will be returned with a tiny display easel.
- Art supplies are not provided but can be made available upon request at most library locations. Call our HQ Project Manager for more details. 724-378-6227

